We Are Avialogix

We're proud to be the company chosen by specifiers all around the world, from Asia, Europe, USA, Middle East and Africa. We offer a truly professional service with a global reach, allowing us to stay true to our values whilst collaborating with members of the local and international logistics communities. What makes Avialogix so unique in this region is the fact that we operate with transparency, trust & proximity to DWC airport & Jebel Ali Frezone, which can easily boast of its distinguished position among the world's largest and fast growing free zones. Each and every one of our highly skilled in-house team and strong workforce across the region is committed to delivering exceptional results. Our experts handle all your logistical operations, thus you can focus on what matters to your business.

Avialogix are about trust, efficiency, cost consciousness, value to customer and punctuality with a full-fledged operation in Jabal Ali Free zone to world networks.

Mission

We aim to provide our clients with the most effective and efficient solution possible, which includes providing point-to-point logistics solutions via global partner networks; reducing costs and increasing efficiency by providing quality services in terms of speed and accuracy; and gaining the satisfaction of customers and business partners.

Vision

The vision of our company is to create an atmosphere of professionalism and develop adaptability so that we can deal with challenges while maintaining a high level of customer service.

Why Avialogix

Expertise, inside knowledge, and a reputation that businesses can trust are essential for successful freight forwarding, project logistics, and warehousing management services in challenging markets like Europe, CIS and the Middle East. This is why Avialogix is the preferred choice for many companies in the region. Our in-depth knowledge of Europe, CIS and the Middle East, coupled with our regional and international service network makes Avialogix a leading service provider in the region.

In order to meet all of your logistics needs, Avialogix offers a "one-stop-shop" solution. Whether you need to move a drilling platform across the seas or move construction goods across the region, Avialogix has the expertise, capability and experience to handle it. Avialogix offers personal service at every level because we are truly independent, make our own decisions, and specialize in our market.
